

MARCH 2017 ~ ICE SHOW NEWS

Can you believe it???? It's almost here!!! Ice Show is just days away. We want to say thanks in advance to all the skaters and parents for all of your extra effort, patience, cooperation and hard work. You're the ones who make this show happen! We hope this newsletter will help tie together all the preparations for ice show week. Enclosed you will find: report times, room assignments, rules of conduct, and important information regarding our show. Please read over all information. We hope that this year's show is as much fun for everyone as past shows have been. A big reminder, there will be no intermission this year. Skaters will stay for and participate in the entire show. Please plan accordingly.

In the Lobby:

During each show, vendors will be selling mementos and such in the upstairs lobbies.

Flowers: Buy your skater a beautiful bouquet for a job well done.

50/50 Raffles: Take a chance at some fast cash.

Auction: Bid to win some great gifts.

Program Books: Cherish the memories, sign some autographs. Buy a book.

Ticket Table: Return your ticket money at the beginning of each show from 6:15-7:00 on Friday and Saturday nights and from 1:15-2:00 on Sunday. If you need more tickets, contact Beth Allen, Kevin Lloyd or Brenda Rogowski.

DVD's: Recordings will be available for purchase. Visit the lobby table for pre-orders.

Special Features:

Ice Show week Concession stand: Pre-ordered meals are available for skaters, coaches, parents and volunteers from the Arena concession stand Monday through Friday. Please see the concession stand to place your advance orders. Skaters will be at the rink long hours this week, please plan accordingly. Do not bring in food from outside vendors.

Ushers/Elevator operators: Ushers will be wielding the flashlights or assisting people in navigating the trip upstairs if needed. Elevators are available for those needing assistance.

Ice Show Admission Guidelines: Ice Show tickets (purchased in advance or at the door) are required for admission to EACH Ice Show performance. Seating is on a first-come basis, except for prearranged group seating that is reserved by the Ushers. Skaters are not allowed in the stands during the shows. Seats are for guests that have purchased tickets.

Volunteer/Committee Passes: Complimentary admission passes will be provided to persons who have signed up in advance to assist with specific duties and whose assignments have been confirmed by the Committee Chairpersons. The Club extends this token of appreciation for the extended time and services that many volunteers provide.

Parking Guidelines: We ask ALL parents of skaters to park at the designated lots where free parking is available at The Clinton Central School. Arena parking is for audience members ONLY. Paid parking will be available in the Arena Lot on a first come basis for a charge of $5.00. The front of the arena will be used for Handicapped parking and Drop-off.
